

Sniper Fieldcraft

This two-day course will give the law enforcement sniper a basic understanding of sniper fieldcraft. Students will learn, perform, and utilize techniques involving movement, hide selection/construction, observation and reporting, and fundamentals of camouflage.

October 2nd and 3rd

Location: Iron Gall Firearms 732 Indiana Ave Kiefer, OK

Class Starts at 0800

Prerequisites

Basic Sniper Course

Equipment list: Bring your kit ready to go to work.

Optics - Binoculars or monoscope

Bolt action rifle or SASS (Semi Auto Sniper System) with scope and bipod

Magazines

20 rounds of ammunition

Eye and ear protection

Sand sock or Sand bag

Note pad or note book for notes/sketching

Small to medium pack

Range finder (recommended)

Drag Lanyard or dog leash and carabiner

Boonie Hat or Ball Cap

Instructor Bios

Reserve Deputy Tony Muller, Tulsa County Sheriff Office

Deputy Muller has served as a Reserve Deputy for the Tulsa County Sheriff Office since 2015. In his time with TCSO Deputy Muller has completed courses in Tactical Man tracking, Covert Rural Tactical Operations, and is a Tactical Tracking S.M.E. instructor. Deputy Muller's prior military experience is with the USMC where he served as Staff Sargent in Force Company, 2nd Reconnaissance Battalion, 2nd Marine Division. Deputy Muller has completed Basic Reconnaissance Course, Combatant Diver Course, and is a Military Freefall instructor, as well as completed Scout Sniper school, Jungle Warfare, Mountain Warfare schools. Deputy Muller has had deployments to South and Central America, Middle East, and South Pacific / Asia.

Sergeant Darian Whittaker, Tulsa County Sheriff Office

Sergeant Darian Whittaker has been a deputy with the Tulsa County Sheriff's Office for 18 years and has served in patrol, court operations, jail operations, extradition, training, dignitary protection, and as a Tactical Team Member on SWAT for 15 years. Darian is currently the SWAT Sniper Team leader and is assigned as the Sergeant over the Tulsa County Sheriff's Office Training Division where he works as a firearms and defensive tactics instructor.